I travelled to Malaita from Honiara on Wednesday 6th of November, 2013 to distribute the Bras and Education materials sent by Project Uplift Australia for those who are in need. I made arrangements for the communities to wait for me a week earlier to receive their gifts.

I started distributing the Bras and Education materials from 11.00am to 7.30pm. The bras and the education materials were well received by the recipients. The recipients were really grateful and assured the Project Uplift that they will make the best use of them. (see photos below):
